

Rachel Villagra

317 Cedarvale Avenue
Toronto, ON M4C 4K3
(647) 571-3364
rachel.hrnandz@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Geneva Centre For Autism, Toronto, ON — Intensive Behavioural Therapist

July 2021 - PRESENT

- Designing and implementing objectives on individual treatment programs using evidence based principles such as: Discrete Trial Training, Shaping, and Natural Environment Training.
- Tracking clients' progress using daily data collection and graphs as well as analyze the data taken to evaluate the program's effectiveness.
- Responsible for meeting weekly deadlines to submit a clinical report for each client on my caseload.
- Preparing teaching materials.
- Liaise daily with parents about the progress of the session.

The Bloom Centre For ABA Therapy & Development, Vaughan, ON — Behavioural Therapist

February 2021 - July 2021

- Delivered ABA programs to children with ASD in individual and group sessions.
- Collected, tracked and monitored data to determine modifications.
- Followed and implemented protocols for aggressive and disruptive behaviours.
- Addressed personal care requirements of the child during each session.

EDUCATION

York University, Toronto ON — Psychology B.A Honours

January 2019 - April 2021

- Received advanced training in Behavioural Science, Neuropsychology and Statistical Analysis.

George Brown College, Toronto ON — Liberal Arts & Science

September 2016 - April 2018

- Completed a variety of courses in Natural and Social Sciences.

ATTRIBUTES

- Strong organizational skills
- Highly adaptive
- Reliable and active team member
- Excellent communication skills
- Superior time management and attention to detail

LANGUAGES

English ★★★★★
(Native Speaker)

Spanish ★★★★★
(Fluent Speaker)

French ★★
(Studied French in Secondary School)

ASL ★★
(Currently pursuing certification in ASL)

